Message from Christi Walter, PhD, Professor and Chair, Department of Cellular & Structural Biology:

The UTHSCSA and the UTSA have been awarded SALSI funding to host a stem cell and regenerative medicine conference in San Antonio. The meeting will take place October 18-20 in downtown San Antonio at the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center. Registration is very reasonable, only $75 for faculty and $25 for students and postdoctoral fellows. Registration is available on the website shown at the bottom of this email and on the bottom of the flyer. Registration deadline is Oct. 5th.
