Subject: NineSigma Request - Preventing Bacterial Attachment on Teeth

Hello-

I am contacting you to make you aware of NineSigma Request, RFP# 65229, "Preventing Bacterial Attachment on Teeth."

Our client, Colgate-Palmolive invites proposals for technologies that prevent bacteria from aggregating in the oral cavity and from attaching to tooth enamel and/or oral tissue for the prevention of oral biofilms formation. NineSigma has identified you as a party with the potential to respond to this request, or as a contact who might know of someone with expertise in this area.

This invitation is not a complete description of the project. More information is available in the Request for Proposal (RFP) document online at https://www.myninesigma.com/sites/public/layouts/RFPs/NineSigma_RFP_65229.pdf (or click here to go directly to the web page). The final submission date for Proposal Briefs is November 30, 2010.

If after reviewing the full RFP document you are interested in submitting a proposal or would like more information, please contact me by email and reference RFP# 65229 in the subject line. When you submit a proposal, please use the response template downloaded from the link below: (https://www.myninesigma.com/sites/public/layouts/ProposalTemplates/Response_Template_65229.doc).

Sincerely,

Kevin P. Andrews, Ph.D.
