Subject: 2013 IADR Satellite Symposium in Clinical Research

Dear D-Perio Colleagues,

Please distribute this email to anyone at your institution or organization who may be interested in clinical research.

In collaboration with the 2013 IADR /AADR meeting in Seattle, Washington, the Task Force on Design and Analysis in Oral Health Research will be offering its 21½ day course in clinical research as a satellite symposium.

This course (below) is limited to 30 people and is designed for faculty or staff who are interested in clinical research. Those interested in registering for the course should contact me at: bpihls@umn.edu

NOTE: This course is separate from another IADR/AADR Satellite Symposium scheduled for Monday, March 18 that is entitled: "Updates in Clinical Research Methodology".

Bruce Pihlstrom, DDS, MS
Task Force on Design and Analysis in Oral Health Research

2013 Satellite Symposium in Clinical Research

Date: March 18-20, 2013

Location: Seattle, Washington
Specific Hotel & Room to be determined.

Description: This 21½ day course will provide an overview of clinical research for dental faculty and government / industry employees.

Target Audience: Faculty and staff who are interested in conducting clinical research will find this course helpful.

Topics include:

- > Clinical Research Design
- > IRB, Good Clinical Practice, Ethical Issues
- > FDA Regulations
- > Day to day operation and management of clinical research
- > Fundamentals of data management and statistical analysis
- > Working with Industry
- > Publication of results
- > Identifying NIH and Industry Funding Opportunities
- > Training Opportunities in Clinical Research

Faculty:

- > Al Best(Virginia Commonwealth University)
- > Michael Barnett (University at Buffalo, State University of New York)
- > Deborah Dawson (University of Iowa)
- > Arthur Hefti (Marquette University)
- > Bruce Pihlstrom (emeritus, University of Minnesota)

Attendance: Limited to the first 30 registrants.

Registration fee:

$400 for academic and government employees

$1000 for employees of companies that are not Task Force Sponsors

Registration is complimentary for employees of Task Force industry sponsors.

Register by contacting Dr. Bruce Pihlstrom at: bpihls@verizon.net

--

The workshop is offered by members of the Task Force on Design and Analysis in Oral Health Research, a non-profit "think tank" supported by industry and composed of academic, industry and government researchers (<http://www.taskforceondesign.org/>).

NOTE: Registration for this IADR satellite program is separate from and DOES NOT include access to the IADR/AADR Annual Meeting.
